New Orleans.

We are gratified to learn that the above city is rapidly recovering from the effects of the war, and is once more prosperous. Her daily papers bear testimony to the success as well as the enterprise of her business men. From the Times of that city we learn that the public and private buildings now in progress, are estimated to cost $2,898,000. Among them are a Masonic Temple, Hibernian Hall, Varieties Theatre, Relief Association Theatre, French Theatre, St. Louis Hotel, three other hotels, four churches, twenty-seven stores and fifty-five dwellings.

New York.

From one of our New York exchanges we gather the following statements: Since the riot the circulation of the New York Herald has been reduced 6,000, and the circulation of the Sun has been reduced 8,000. The Star, which defends the rioters, has gained 10,000 subscribers. The circulation of the World has slightly increased, while the Times, Tribune and other dailies, have not been materially affected. Irish servant girls are implored to withhold their advertisements from the Herald.

W. B. Astor has paid income on more than the whole State of Vermont, and A. T. Stewart more than was collected in any one of twenty-seven States and territories.

Georgia Matters.

The Brunswick Appeal mentions the death of Mr. James M. Ward.

The Milledgeville Recorder says the Good Templars initiated 45 persons Friday.

The Washingtons, says the Savannah Advertiser, will hold a picnic August 7th.

The Monroe County Agricultural Society met last Saturday....Mr. J. O. Creigler hurt, says the Monroe Advertiser.

The Columbus Enquirer says the Rev. Mr. Hartwell's lecture on China was well attended....Sharp Johnson arrested....Mrs Mary McDonald dead.

The McDuffie Journal says the Lincoln camp-meeting commences next Friday....Mr. J. Vaugh and Miss Georgia Seay married....Mrs. Ben. Cody dead.

Cartersville wants a laundry.....The teachers of Bartow county requested to meet in Cartersville, first Tuesday in August....New Methodist church going up rapidly, says the Express.

The Columbus Sun says: "The Worrill Troupe have written here to engage the Opera House for the Fair week next fall. Another troupe has also written to engage it"....Barbecue at Hamilton, August 1st.

The Chronicle and Sentinel mentions the names of Owen Smith, Rev. Peter Allen and three women Silver Bluff murderers arrested....The murderer of John W. Price, who was killed over four years ago, arrested....The Alumni Club of University of Georgia, in Augusta, met on Monday.

PROPRIETORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

The Radicals and the Riots--Native and foreign Population of New York---Magnitude of the City--Growth of the United States--A Mammoth Republic---Colleges--Summer Resorts--Crowds of Pleasure Seekers and Invalids--Fashions--Dissipation--Nilsson--Good News for Susceptible Youths--Around the World--Atlanta Marriage Hinted at--Georgia Finances.

NEW YORK, July 22, 1871.

The Radicals are still gloating over the riot, for their labors have not been wholly in vain. I wrote you in my last, that they incited the riot for the purpose of creating dissentions among the Democracy. In this they have partially succeeded, for the Irish Catholic press are severe on Hoffman for permitting the procession, and our native citizens are equally severe on Mayor Hall for attempting to suppress it. Some Democrats have been seduced from the party; but whatever the damage, it will only be temporary and the unscrupulous conduct of the Radicals will in the end, redound to their shame, and overthrow.

NATIVE AND FOREIGN POPULATION.

The general impression that the foreign population out numbers the native in this city is a mistake. More than 500,000 are native, and of the remaining 400,000, the Irish number 200,000 and the Germans 150,000. The Radicals have also charged that the native element belonged chiefly to the Republican party, whereas the native Democratic vote is at least 50,000, while the Republican is not more than 15,000.

MAGNITUDE OF NEW YORK.

Some idea of the vast proportions of this cosmopolis, into which the emigrant tide is streaming from all parts of the globe, may be formed from a few rough statistical estimates Within it are published about five hundred newspapers, journals and magazines. There are over three hundred churches or temples of worship, of which the Methodists and Baptists have each some forty, the Presbyterians and Episcopalians each some seventy five, Roman Catholics forty, and Hebrews twenty-five. There are about one hundred and fifty banks, one hundred and fifty, fire and life insurance companies, four hundred manufacturing companies, and fifty or sixty asylums.

NATIONAL GROWTH.

But the whole country is assuming immense proportions. The census returns show a population of forty millions. We are passing, one by one, the nations of the earth, and in the natural course of events the time cannot be comparatively far distant, considering the rapidity of increase, when our population shall reach a hundred millions. This mammoth Republic, stretching from ocean to ocean, may well be the cynosure of the world's gaze, and evoke the homage of the world's oppressed.

COLLEGES.

I see it stated that in the United States the total number of colleges for males is 306, besides 66 Roman Catholic institutions. Female colleges are almost as numerous as sand upon the seashore; and well, for it insures a collegiate education among American women generally. These colleges are necessarily numerous, as girls cannot be sent to school a great distance from home as readily as the boys, for many obvious reasons. When we remember, also, that the common school system has become generally adopted, we perceive that the American people are equally in the van of the world's progress in the matter of education and educational facilities.

SUMMER RESORTS.

From all directions come accounts of vast crowds at the seaside, springs, and other summer resorts. Long Branch and Newport have attracted multitudes, and among those at the former place, is the President of the United States, who, as you are aware, has abandoned Washington for a "cottage by the sea." A rather strange proceeding for a President of the United States, but the impression is abroad that the country would be advantaged by his permanent absence from Washington, and the people will so express themselves next year.

There are perhaps a thousand persons at the White Sulphur Springs in Virginia, and five or six thousand at Saratoga. All classes are represented, the good and bad, gay and sedate, merchants, lawyers, clergymen, et al., invalids, and mere pleasure seekers. Indeed, the invalid portion is not one-tenth of the others. The round of fashion and dissipation at these so-called health resorts, make more invalids than are healed at them. The papers teem with descriptions of at these places and "how the ladies look." But instead of telling us in fact how the ladies looked, these ungallant correspondents tell us how their dresses looked. Some men can never remove their eyes from the dear faces long enough to study the style of their dresses or the size of their chignons, or whether their toilets were "reding, otes," "mauve silk," "poult de soie," with "silk sash and neck tie, cut on the bias," or something else equally exquisite. It isn't one of the possibilities that a susceptible man should have his senses sufficiently about him in the presence of a pretty girl to ascertain that she wore "a very becoming dress, consisting of a petticoat of mauve silk, made with bands of violet velvet placed the length of the skirt to represent stripes; the tunic and body of white gauze de chambery, with a small pointed basque; bonnet of mauve silk with mauve flowers." For the benefit of THE CONSTITUTION's lady readers, I send you an article on "How the Ladies Looked."

Talking about the fair creatures brings to mind

NILSSON,

and what do you suppose they say about her. Simply, that her intended, who came across the water to consummate matters, has been sent flying back. No "whys" or "wherefores" are stated; only the fact. So there is hope for that young man in Atlanta, who threw her that beautiful magnolia. Please convey the news to him gently for fear of untoward consequences. For his benefit, or that of a certain couple in Atlanta (soon to be married), let me throw out a suggestion for the bridal tour, namely,

A TRIP ROUND THE WORLD.

This would be a "new departure," grand and romantic. There have been marriages in caves under earth, and in balloons above the earth, but never (that I have heard) a bridal voyage around the globe. Bridal tours up the Kimball House elevator have now become old, and the time has arrived for a new sensation in that line. Tickets for the round trip are for sale at $1,250.

GEORGIA FINANCES.

I see that Gov. Bullock has at last been forced by the attacks of the Treasurer and press to exhibit "his hand" Of course, the letter of the Ku-Klux Committee is only the pretext for doing what had become a necessity. This reply was published in several journals here, and had a marked effect upon Georgia bonds in Wall street, running them up from 92 to 96 and 97 cents. To those familiar with his antecedents, his very Democratic introductory sentiments are amusing, if not farcical; while his statement of the financial status, if correct, is certainly a very comfortable one to the excited nerves of the people. I have not yet carefully examined the letter. If our financial condition is such as represented, while it is bad enough, yet it is better than that of our Southern sisters, and there is no reason why the credit of Georgia, in financial circles should not be, as in times gone, unsurpassed. C.

A LADY LOST IN THE WOODS.

Seventy-two Hours Without Food—Her Adventures.

From the San Francisco Alta, July 11.

A young lady, Miss Matilda Steen, left San Francisco six or seven weeks ago, where she had been following the business of a dressmaker, to join her brothers, who are engaged in making tanbark in the neighborhood of the Garcia river, Point Arena, Mendocino county. She had been living with them some weeks, when one morning, about 11 A. M., (on the 26th ult.) she discovered that she had forgotten to put knives in their lunch basket, so she determined to take them to the spot where her brothers were working. She did so, with great difficulty—the forest being like those of many parts of Oregon and British Columbia, a dense mass of undergrowth, immense fallen logs, &c., and very mountainous country. She then started to return, one of her brothers offering to accompany her. This she declined, saying that as she had found her way in, she could surely find her way out again. It was at this time she got lost. Hear her story:

When I first found I was lost I was badly frightened. I ran through the brush as fast as I could, howling at every step, but after a while I cooled down and confined my locomotion to a fast walk.

The first night found me on the side of a mountain, about half way to the top. I looked around me to find a level place where I could rest through the night, but no such place could I find, so I just placed my feet against a tree to keep from sliding down the mountain, and in this attitude I remained through the night. Occasionally I would wake, and whenever I awoke, I would halloo at the top of my voice, thinking, perhaps, some one might hear me. Vain hope! I had no fear of any wild beasts.

The second day I came to two or three mountains covered with chaperral and white thorn, and I was obliged to crawl through it like a snake. When I would get through, all torn and bleeding, I would involuntarily exclaim, as I looked behind me, how in the name of God did I ever get through that.

As I was going down a mountain I heard a step behind me, and looking around discovered that it was a deer following me, and when I picked up a stick and threw at it, it ran off and I saw it no more.

On Thursday, about noon, I suddenly came out to a trail, and, like Robinson Crusoe, I saw a human track! That track gladdened my heart as never a track did before. I followed the track and saw a fence, and next a house! Thank God! I was saved. When I got close to the house I stopped and hallooed, and some gentleman came out and invited me in. I went in and told them that I was the lost woman. They said they had heard of my being lost the night before, and were on the lookout for me. They prepared some food for me, and were very much afraid I would eat too much. I ate very little. Somehow I was not hungry. When I had finished my meal I told them that I wanted to go home; but they would not hear of it. They said I was too much fatigued to attempt it that night, and one of them got on a horse and went to the Garcia mill to hear the news. One of my brothers came out that evening as soon as he heard the news, and I rode home on Friday morning.

When the news reached Garcia mill that Miss Steen was found, and alive and well, the wildest excitement ensued. About 400 men had collected there for the purpose of a more organized hunt. Hitherto they had been hunting at random, without any organization and now they had all collected in from all quarters to organize and search the woods systematically in all directions.

Miss Steen is a native of New Brunswick, twenty-five years of age, and came to California about three years since.

☞ In the depths of the sea the waters are still; the heaviest grief is that borne in silence; the deepest love flows through the eye and touch; the purest joy is unspeakable; the most impressive preacher at a funeral is the silent one whose lips are cold.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—W. D. Greenwald has been tendered the Presidency of the Toledo, Wabash and Western Railroad.

Delano has returned.

A Haytien letter states that nineteen citizens were arrested for cannibalism.

Persian advices represent the famine dreadful. Survivors eat the dead.

A Sanitary Cordon was drawn along the borders of Turkey and Prussia.

British gunboats were sent to Canton to protect the English and other foreigners.

Charles James Matthews, commedian, dead. Aged sixty-seven.

ARIZONA.

TUSCANY, July 26.—Advices of the 18th say there has been a fight over a wagon train en route for Fort Bowie; thirteen Indians and one soldier were killed, and three wounded.

Nothing has been heard from Gen. Crook for three days.

Fort Smith advices of the 22d report that a party of Osages have returned to their lodges with three white scalps and loaded with plunder.

The yellow fever is malignant at Pera, Brazil. The English Consul is dead and his wife is dying. Nearly every stranger that has arrived within the last six months is dead. Naval Captain James O. Williamson is dead.

CUBA.

HAVANA, July 26.—Alvarez and Hernandez, Cuban emissaries, who were recently captured, have been executed Felix Auguste Bayes, the companion of the late Cavada, has been executed.

CHURCH SUBSCRIPTION.—We learn that subscriptions to repair the damage to the new church have been made very liberally, yet the fund necessary is deficient about four hundred dollars. This sum the committee anticipate they will be able to raise in a few days. At all events there will be no delay in prosecuting the work of repairs and completion. [Monroe Advertiser.

7-30 GOLD LOAN OF THE Northern Pacific Railroad.

RAPID PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

THE building of the Northern Pacific Railroad (begun July last) is being pushed forward with great energy from both extremities of the line. Several thousand men are employed in Minnesota and on the Pacific coast. The grade is nearly completed 266 miles westward from Lake Superior; trains are running over 130 miles of finished road, and track laying is rapidly progressing toward the eastern border of Dakota. Including its purchase of the St Paul and Pacific Road, the Northern Pacific Company now has 412 miles of completed road, and by September next this will be increased to at least 500.

A Good Investment.—Jay Cooke & Co. are now selling, and unhesitatingly recommend, as a Profitable and perfectly safe investment, the First Mortgage Land Grant Gold Bonds of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. They have 30 years to run, bear Seven and Three-Tenths per cent. gold interest, (more than 8 per cent. currency,) and are secured by first and only mortgage on the ENTIRE ROAD AND ITS EQUIPMENTS, and also, as fast as the Road is completed, on 23,000 Acres of Land to every mile of track or 500 Acres for each $1,000 Bond. They are exempt from United States Tax; Principal and Interest are payable in Gold; Denominations: Coupons, $100 to $1,000; Registered, $100 to $10,000.

Lands for Bonds.—Northern Pacific 7-30's are at all times receivable at TEN PER CENT. ABOVE PAR, in exchange for the Company's Lands, at their lowest cash price. This renders them practically INTEREST BEARING LAND WARRANTS.

Sinking Fund.—The proceeds of all sales of Lands are required to be devoted to the re-purchase and cancellation of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Company. The Land Grant of the Road exceeds Fifty Million Acres. This immense sinking fund will undoubtedly cancel the principal of the Company's bonded debt before it falls due. With their ample security and high rate of interest, there is no investment, accessible to the people, which is more PROFITABLE OR SAFE.

Exchanging U. S. Five-Twenties.—The success of the New Government 5 per cent. Loan will compel the early surrender of United States 6 per cents. Many holders of Five-Twenties are now exchanging them for Northern Pacific Seven-Thirties, thus realizing a handsome profit, and greatly increasing their yearly income.

Other Securities.—All marketable Stocks and Bonds will be received at their highest current price in exchange for Northern Pacific Seven-Thirties. Express charges on Money or Bonds received, and on Seven-Thirties sent in return, will be paid by the Financial Agents. Full information, maps, pamphlets, etc., can be obtained on application at any agency, or from the undersigned. For sale by

It is the most simple and easily regulated Machine now in use.

The shuttle gives an even tension from the full to the empty bobbin.

Makes the most durable, elastic and smooth stitch.

Stitching the softest muslin without drawing it into the feed, and from that to heavy cloth or leather without changing the tension, making it capable of a greater range of work than any other machine made.

We use the straight needle, and it will do more and finer work than the curved needle.

The work moves from you instead of sideways, which is much easier to manage.

For speed and ease of operation it is unequaled.

Our machinery is all protected from dust.

Our corder, tucker, gatherer, quilter, trimmer, fringer, binder, hemmer, braider, feller and embroidery attachment are simple and easily used.

We have the best of silks of our own manufacture at wholesale and retail, of all colors and numbers.

We will place the Singer in your family for a trial with any machine you may wish to try with it.

The sales of our New Family Sewing Machine is steadily increasing, showing its popularity.

The new No 1 Machine for Tailors and Bootmakers is the best in the market.

Examine before purchasing.

Are now sold on easy terms at the Atlanta Agency.

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE CITY

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE COUNTY.

THE LARGEST CITY, COUNTY AND STATE CIRCULATION. DEFIES REFUTATION

BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO.

I. W. AVERY, Editor.

Morning Edition.

ATLANTA:

THURSDAY, JULY 27, 1871.

Bishop Rosecrans.

Bishop Rosecrans of the Catholic diocese of Ohio, has written a letter denouncing the New York rioters, in which he says they do not represent the Catholic sentiment of the United States.

Law Books.

We acknowledge the reception of a copy of the catalogue of law publications of the well known firm of W. C. Little & Co., Law Publishers, Albany, New York. Their collection of books is as large and complete as that of any house in the country.

Chattanooga to Have a New Paper.

We clip the following from the Cincinnati Enquirer of Friday: "A. W. Francisco and H. R. W. Smith, well known newspaper men of this city, left for Chattanooga, Tennessee, last night. This probably means that Chattanooga is to have a new newspaper, or new life and spirit in an old one."

☞ The Memphis School Board has established the pay of teachers in public schools at the following rates: Male principal of the high school, $2,000 per annum; principal of the female high school, $1,500; assistant of the female high school, $900; principal of male schools, $1,200; female do., $1,200; male teachers for the first year, $1,000; second do., $1,100; third do., $1,200; female teachers for the first year, $600; second do., $700; third do., $800.

Pomological Association.

On the 6th, 7th and 8th of September, in connection with the Virginia State Horticultural Society, the National Convention of the American Pomological Association will be held at Richmond. At this Convention the second division of their catalogue of fruits, which embraces the Southern States, will be completed for publication. Will Atlanta be represented in this Convention? Our citizens, at least quite a number of them, have perfected a Pomological organization in our city, and doubtless delegates duly accredited will be in attendance at Richmond, at the Convention.

Riots in New York.

The recent Orange riots in the above named city have induced the New York World to examine into the previous riots that have occurred in New York from the year 1705 up to the present day. Quite a number of them were rather trivial affairs, still they were troublesome to quell and break up. In 1788, there was a mob which undertook to run out the doctors because they dissected dead bodies. The riots of ante revolutionary times appear mostly to have been street brawls, while since the riots of 1849, they have assumed larger and more dangerous proportions. Having so many elements, native and foreign, these disturbances have not produced, after all, so very large an amount of suffering. Still riots are ever to be deprecated, and should be prevented if possible.

Senator Harlan.

The Senator finds the road to honors in Iowa rather a hard one to travel—not bordered with flowers, and freed from obstructions, by his Radical friends. His old German allies are becoming quite bitter at the idea of his re-election, in fact, are making every exertion to prevent it and are bringing thoughts to the Senator's mind as gloomy as are those of a penniless doctor during a healthy season.

The charges brought against him are, that he endeavored to corrupt the press of the State; that he approves their views on the tariff question; because they have no confidence in his political integrity; and, furthermore, because he permitted himself to be used as a tool in the hands of the President to work them an injury.

Before very many months roll round, there are many Harlans who, politically, will be permitted to go "where the woodbine twineth."

Georgians at Allegheny Springs.

A correspondent of the Lynchburg Virginian, dots the notable beauties at the above Virginia Springs, and among the number writes thusly of the Georgia beauties: Miss K——e T——s, niece of a distinguished Georgia Ex-Senator, was elegantly dressed and the cynosure of many eyes, and the recipient of many compliments.

Miss A——e R——l (the belle of Georgia), a perfect Hebe, radiant in smiles and resplendent in a magnificent toilette.

Miss L——o G——r, a vivacious and attractive belle, from Savannah, who danced with inimitable ease, and whose company was much sought.

Miss B——r, had legions of admirers.

We always feel proud of our Georgia young ladies (and we mean all of them from the Mountains to the Seaboard).

Their beauty, grace, modesty and refinement, ever causes them to be attractive, and they take their position as belles in whatever society they enter.

The Alumni Dinner.

The dinner to the Alumni of the University of Georgia, will come off on Monday, July 31st. Will one of the Alumni be absent from Athens on that day? Will not all, who can, go up to the University, that light of learning and science, and generously and heartily co-operate with each other in diffusing that light, and sending its blessings and genial warmth throughout Georgia?

The Alumni are called together not to discuss and settle some question of temporary concern; not to mingle in the strife of party politics; not to debate about matters of petty interest, but the object and purposes are such as will fill every virtuous and patriotic bosom with high hopes and substantial joy, and give occasion for warm and general congratulation.

Forgetting the discords of professional life, the competitions of business, the thirst for fame, mindful of their literary brotherhood, they visit the cherished scenes of their youthful studies, renew for a short time their old associations of classic life, and will cordially support every plan to make the University a noble depository of intellectual wealth and power.

May the meeting of the Alumni give an impulse to the College; may the happiest results follow their dinner, and may its influence flow out to the borders of the land, and may each succeeding year witness the enlargement, and the growing influence of the University on the minds and fortunes of all classes in this and other States.

The Patience of the Southern People.

If Congress would extend the inquisicis of the Southern Outrage Committee into an investigation of the outrages committed by the carpet-bag governors and legislatures of the Southern States, says the Richmond Enquirer, there would be an abundant amount of work. The whole land has rung with the spoliation and taxation inflicted on South Carolina—with the spoliation of Georgia by Governor Bullock—with the wasteful expenditure of money in North Carolina—with the enormous increase of taxation in Louisiana—with the frauds and corruption in Florida—with the throwing open of the penitentiary doors in South Carolina and Georgia.

We have recently referred to the case of Texas—to the statement of Flake's Bulletin, a Republican paper, that "the present Legislature of Texas is the most corrupt body of men which ever assembled under sanction of law to rob and plunder the people."

We give the following table of the taxes collected in Texas for the years 1860, 1867, and 1871:

|---|---|
| 1860. | |
| Am't of taxes assessed ad valorem | $367,894 55 |
| Occupation | 59 163 72 |
| Poll tax | 27,746 00 |
| | $454,804 27 |
| Amount expended same year | $710,784 77 |
| 1867. | |
| Am't of taxes assessed ad valorem | $224,507 51 |
| Poll tax | 95,195 00 |
| Income and salary | 23 605 85 |
| | $344,308 38 |
| Amount collected | $448,825 43 |
| Amount expended | 470,678 80 |

The assessment of taxes for the current year is estimated at $5,837,953 88, or nearly twenty-five fold what it was in 1867! In order that these startling facts may be still better appreciated, it is only necessary to compare the aggregate wealth at these three periods.

Value of taxable property in Texas for

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1860. | Negroes | $106,688,980 |
| | Other property | 187,626,709 |
| | Total | $294,315,689 |
| 1867 | | 170,005 617 |
| 1871 (reported) | | 260,464,617 |

So that while the total value of property is, estimated at a diminution of $35,000,000, in round numbers, between 1860 and 1871, (owing to emancipation,) the assessment of taxes has risen from $367,894 to $5,837,963!

Again, the rate of taxation in

MARIETTA FEMALE COLLEGE.

Junior Examination and Exhibition—Original Essays Read—Sophomore Prize for Best Reader, Presented by Hon. W. D. Anderson—Address by Rev. A. Wright To-Day, and Concert To-night.

MARIETTA, GA., July 26, 1871.

Editor Constitution: Yesterday was devoted to the examination of the junior class. The exercises in words of Greek origin and derivations and their analysis demonstrated the importance of a knowledge of that language, and numerous illustrations were given to induce the conviction.

The young ladies were subjected to a rigid analysis of chemistry, organic and inorganic. The manner in which the examination was conducted in chemical affinities showed that the principles involved had been thoroughly studied and comprehended. For instance, in the case of an aquarium, where the oxygen of the water would soon become exhausted by the use of the fish, and it would thus perish but for the plant that grew in the vessel, the office of which was to absorb the carbon, and thus free the oxygen which was again in a condition to support animal life. The routine of books was discarded and the pupils were forced to rely upon their knowledge of the principles of this interesting and important science.

The class in rhetoric and versification answered promptly to promiscuous interrogatories, and gave various examples illustrative of the principles involved in the respective sciences.

The young ladies, without valid pretext, incur the hazard of just criticism in the subdued tone in which they answer interrogatories and read essays. A change in this particular would materially enhance the merit of their performances. It is a prominent fault due to tender years.

Last night a portion of the members of the junior class read original essays to a very large audience, the circumspection and polite attention of which, throughout the entire series of performances, I have never seen surpassed.

Miss Ada C. Rogers, of Marietta, began the entertainments of the evening by furnishing an essay on "history." By the light of such a guide we were enabled to discover the errors that had been committed by our predecessors, and its luminous pages disclosed to us, the routes by which the heights of virtue and true renown might be attained, and the thousand devious dusty paths that toiling mortals had pursued in order to reach the dizzy heights from which the sound of fame's silvery trump shall make them immortal. The crowning virtues of Washington, and the infamy of Benedict Arnold were presented as illustrations of the attractiveness of the one and the repulsiveness of the other, as seen by the light of history.

Miss Hattie Tremble, of Bartow, in "The Pleasures of Travel," seated us after checking our baggage through, in one of Pullman's luxurious sleeping palaces, surrounded with all the gorgeous drapery and dazzling attractions of the palace of an Oriential Queen. The shrill signal whistle announced the moment of departure, and away we glided, a merry crew on rapid wheels through lofty mountains and valleys deep, from sea to sea from the "great river to the great ocean," through defiles narrow, rivers deep, across vast blooming plains, redolent with the "balm of a thousand flowers," with the swiftness of the winged wind we moved. In seven days we fly athwart the continent and are moving amidst the wonders of California, and gazing upon the mysteries of San Francisco, her wonderful population and the gorgeous products of Eastern Asia. We reverse the engine and the great west soon fades from our vision, and we tread again "my dear native land," and regale our friends with the history of our wonderful flight from the east to a point beyond the great Sierra Nevada.

Miss Julia S. Morris, of Marietta, thought it wise not to look into "Futurity." The privilege would disclose sights that would bring to us pain and sorrow. We should realize the consciousness of the hour of the dissolution of our friends and our eternal separation from them, the anticipation of which would fill our hearts with grief. We should see friendships broken, and cherished plans foiled by some whom we have trusted. "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof," was the motto of the fair reader.

Miss Julia M. Anderson in presenting the "Past compound with the Present," contrasted the customs, usages and habits of our ancestors with the wonderful developments and progress of the present day. The steam engine with its amazing capacity for celerity of motion and power of transportation was contrasted with the slow toiling teams of other days, and instead of the news carrier mounted astride his weary steed to convey important information, intelligence, with the swiftness of lightning, is transmitted across the mainland, under the waters of the "vasty deep;" and girdles the world in an instant.

Miss Lou Bozeman, of Cobb, furnished the reason of the scarcity of "Female Writers of the South."

On returing from the halls of science they devoted themselves to pleasure, and considered the day on which they received their parchment as the one on which all their glories and honors culminated. They did not imitate the example of Mrs. Sigourney, Willard, and Hale. Their former wealth and consequent ease and luxury served as a barrier to the development of writers of distinction, and consequently they were content to revolve as satelites around Northern stars of greater magnitude. Want of patronage was another reason alleged for paucity of luminaries in the empire of letters in the South.

Miss Lucy E. Ryburn, of Marietta, selected as her theme the tender couplet,

"Sweet is the image of the brooding dove.
Holy as heaven is a mother's love."

Who can sound the depths and heights of a mother's love. Her emotional nature is ever in sympathy with her offspring. No departure from the path of rectitude can separate a mother's love from the "child she bore." Under all the circumstances and vicissitudes of life she is ever steadfast and abiding. Though the enormities of crimes may so blacken the pages of the criminal record, that to escape the just retribution of violated law he is compelled to seek refuge in a foreign land, yet with the eye of the eagle she watches the labyrinthean wanderings of the wayward child, and when weary of the flight and beyond the reach of his pursuers he seeks repose, she, with firm resolve, flies with eagle's wing to his side. The contemplation of the annals of crime can never crush out from a mother's heart the impressions fixed there from the cradle of innocence, by the simple utterance, "Rock me to sleep, mother, rock me to sleep."

Hon W. D. Anderson, in a beautiful and appropriate address, delivered the prize to the best sophomore reader. The successful contestant being Miss Ola S. Wallace, of Cobb. The medal from some unknown cause failed to reach the President in time for presentation, and a streamer of blue ribbon was substituted for the same, in the meantime the more substantial mark of distinction is expected to arrive soon.

Rev. Arminius Wright has arrived, and will to-day deliver the annual address before the Literary Societies of the College.

The annual Concert comes off to-night, directed by Prof. Schoeller, assisted by Prof. Freyer.

Marietta has furnished Atlanta with quite a number of valuable citizens; among whom may be named Cols. Brumly and W. L. Gordon; W. L. Wadsworth, who was in business here sixteen years, has established a large hardware business in your city, besides conducting two similar concerns in Americus, Ga., and Tuskegee, Ala. J. N. S.

NEW STEAMERS FOR THE INMAN LINE. There are at present being built for the Inman line two new steamers, to be called the "City of Montreal" and "City of Richmond." Both vessels will be about 3,500 tons. The City of Montreal will be about 438 feet in length, 43 feet beam, and 29 feet depth of hold. The City of Richmond will be 10 feet longer than her consort, but otherwise of the same dimensions. In many respects these steamers will be superior to any vessels engaged in the transatlantic trade.—New York Bulletin.

☞ A Troy firm has recently received an order from South America for sixteen slabs of bell-metal, to weigh one hundred pounds each. On one of the peaks of the Andes a house of worship has been erected by some monks, and it has been determined to place a bell weighing sixteen hundred pounds in the turret. To transport an article of that weight up the narrow bridle-paths that lead to the temple in the clouds would be impossible; so the monks have ordered the material in slabs, and intend to build a furnace on the mountain and cast the bell themselves.

A Minister Brutally Whips His Daughter.

[From the Mound City (Mo.) Sentinel.]

It is not unfrequent of late that we hear, through the medium of the press, of the outrages committed in almost every locality within the borders of the nation; and it now becomes our task to chronicle one of the most dastardly outrages perpetrated by human hand, which happened in our midst within the past ten days.

On the Fourth of July Miss Ellen McGrew, in company with some others, attended the celebration at this place, remaining during the day and until after the fire-works in the [illegible] ling of young people is a natural result, and this case was not an exception to the rule.

A young man by the name of Fred. Mitchell sought and obtained the company of Miss McGrew during the evening, and, after the exercises escorted her home. After arriving at home, and upon entering the house, she was asked who came home with her, and she replied that Mr. Mitchell and others came in the same wagon. At this her father became enraged, and threatened to get out of bed immediately and whip her, but did not make any attempt until the next morning. We are informed that the young lady arose quite early the next morning, and not long after, her father got up and ordered her to go to the smokehouse, at the same time telling her that he was going to whip her if she did not make certain promises to him, which were these: That she would not hereafter speak to or countenance said Mitchell. She told her father that she could not make any such promises, as she knew she could not keep them, and therefore did not wish to tell him a falsehood.

The father, becoming convinced that she would not make any such promises, became more enraged, when he clinched her and forced her into the smokehouse, closing the door after him. The story of his brutal transaction is as follows: He first took her hands and tied them behind her, and afterwards pulled down her hair, which is quite long, and tied it to her hands, drawing her head back as far as he could with her hair. He then put a strap around her neck and choked her, and took a stick that he had previously secured and struck her three times with it. He then dropped the stick and knocked her down with his fist and kicked her several times thereafter.

She was taken into the house by her mother and friends, and placed on the bed, where she remained in an unconscious state for about three hours. Dr. Lantern, of Farlinsville, was called upon, who visited the house, but McGrew forbade him telling anything concerning the case without he was obliged to by law. We learn that the doctor refused to make an examination of the young lady's body, stating that he did not wish to know more. She remained in bed from the time of the occurrence, which was Wednesday morning, until Sunday evening, and then was barely able to sit up.

This occurred in Centreville township about seven miles from this place.

Mr. Mitchell is said to be a trusworthy young man. He was employed by McGrew for a year previous to this occurrence. We are also informed that he is a member of the same church. He is highly spoken of by his neighbors as a poor but honest and industrious boy.

McGrew was brought into town on Wednesday evening by Deputy Constable E. O. Strong. He gave bonds to appear at this place for trial on Wednesday morning.

Two Railroad Accidents.

On Saturday morning, between three and four o'clock, as freight train No. 13 on the L., M. & N. R. R., bound north, was running at full speed between Glassgow Junction and Rocky Hill station, a defective rail threw eight of the cars from the track down an embankment of some twenty feet, completely demolishing part of them and seriously damaging the rest. The train was very heavily loaded with whisky, pork, bacon, etc., which was scattered in every direction, and will prove almost a total loss. The first several cars with the engine had passed over the rail, and it is supposed that it was broken during the passage. Two or three cars in the rear of the train were detached by the shock and escaped injury. The rails and ties were torn up for some distance along the scene of the accident, and caused a delay of several hours to the express trains going North and South, but by one o'clock the same afternoon the road was clear and passage resumed.

A brakeman named John Nunon, before his car was thrown from the track, attempted to jump off, but, by some mischance, fell headforemost into the mud, and, before he could extricate himself, the car from which he had jumped fell upon him, killing him instantly and mashing him to a jelly. So firmly was the body fixed in its position that it was necessary to use an axe before it could be extricated. It is said that only a day or two before, he had signed a paper, demanded of its employes by the road, absolving the company from any liability for damages in case of injury to himself while at his post. He was from Sandusky, Ohio. His father was telegraphed of the death of his son Saturday morning, and arrived in the city yesterday to recover his body.

Another accident is reported on the Clarksville branch, but without fatal result. About 3 o'clock yesterday morning freight train No. 9, when about a mile and a half south of Cave City, became uncoupled. Another train was just in the rear, and before it could be flagged, struck the caboose at the rear of the uncoupled section, knocking it off its trucks, smashing in a part of the car, and forcing it and two or three others in front off the track. The engine was damaged badly, this being the most serious loss to the company.—Courier-Journal.

Deliberate Murder—Remarkable Coolness of the Murderer.

From the Nevada (Mo.) Times, July 14.

On Wednesday last, a man arrived at Balltown, and put up at the hotel kept by Mr. Pennington. He appeared to be a very quiet man—was riding a splendid horse, and wore a brace of revolvers. He talked very little to any one, but made some casual inquiries about a man by the name of Bedford. On Thursday he was absent all day; returned late in the evening, and Wednesday he made arrangements to have his horse taken care of two or three days; but in a short time changed his mind, got his horse, fired off and cleaned up his pistols, and said he would take a ride. While riding along, Layton, who did the shooting, was overtaken by one of the citizens of Osage, who was going to Marsh Owens' house, where they were threshing wheat, and they got into conversation. When they came to Owens' lane, Layton asked the neighbor, "Is this the road we go?" The gentleman answered, "That is according to where you want to go." Layton said, "Oh, anywhere, not particular."

They rode down the lane to near the house, got off their horses and hitched them to the fence, and got over into the yard where the thresher was at work. Immediately after crossing the fence Layton began pulling the glove of his right hand with his teeth and walking toward the machine, which was still at the time. When within about thirty steps of Bedford, Bedford saw him, turned and ran. Layton drew his pistol and fired, the first shot dropping him. Bedford arose and started again, when another shot brought him to the ground; then Layton stepped up to him and put another ball through him as he lay on the ground. Bedford was shot through the thigh, through the bowels from back to front, and through the chest from back to front, penetrating the lungs. After firing the third shot, and seeing his victim lying helpless before him, with the blood running from his mouth, he turned and walked to his horse, mounted and leisurely cantered out to the mouth of the lane, and then walked his horse until out of sight. Layton never spoke a word after crossing the fence, but did his work coolly and deliberately.

IMMIGRATION TO THE SOUTH.—The Secretary of the German and Swedish Immigration Aid Society in Savannah, Georgia, gives notice that European immigration can now be brought directly to the port of Savannah at $34 each, gold, passage money. He adds that the new steamship line, the Baltic Lloyd, will be induced to send one of its steamers to Savannah, provided a sufficient number of passengers are secured. And apropos of the Swedish movement, which is attracting most attention in Georgia, Mr. C. H. Du Pont, of Quincy, Florida, writes to the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle, a long letter, descanting warmly upon the virtues of the Swede, of which the following is one paragraph:

"I have had one with me since last October. From the first day he picked as much cotton as any hand in the field, made the best fireman that I ever had around a sugar furnace, beat all of the hands at splitting rails, and is as good a plowman as there is on the farm. The best of all is, he never drinks, lies nor steals, and he is but a type of the balance of them."

☞ The Gold Hill, Nevada News, speaks of a county which it describes as "out west," where the local papers chronicle the hanging of a horse thief thus: "Mr. Jim [illegible], [illegible] of [illegible], was lately the victim of a neck-tie sociable."

ANOTHER INDIANA SCAMP.

Seven Wives and Twenty-Nine States to Hear From—A Man that Preaches Like Mr. Beecher, Lectures Like John B. Gough, and Gets Married Like C. C. Bowen.

[Correspondence of The Sun.]

INDIANAPOLIS, July 5.—There now languishes in the Shelby county jail one of the most interesting culprits I have ever heard of. I think I may multiply adjectives on this fellow.

Charles McWilliams is his name. This is not by any manner of means all his names. He has called himself Harry Wilson and half a score of other taking sobriquets. His proper surname is supposed to be McWilliams, as he was born under that name some thirty-five years ago, in the little village of Crotesville, in this State. He is tall and graceful, has good features and complexion, and an alluring smile, while the fascination of his gaze is as irresistible as that of a serpent.

In addition to his personal charms he has a wonderful memory, and can preach like a Beecher, lecture like a Gough and sing like a mocking bird. He has two wives in Wisconsin, three in Indiana, and two in Ohio. As a general thing he married daughters of well-to-do men in whatever church he happened to belong to. His favorite mode of proceeding was to forge certificates of license to preach, and it is astonishing how successfully he carried on his system of knavery within a radius of a few miles.

On one occasion he was traveling on foot through the country, when he stopped by the wayside at a house of the humblest description. Upon inquiry he found it had belonged to a widow, but on the settlement of her husband's estate it was taken to pay his debts. All the property she possessed, or had any claim to in the world, was a cow and calf.

McWilliams actually married her that evening, and the next morning, with her consent, drove the cow and calf to the nearest town, sold them and put the money in his pocket. That was the last seen of him by the widowed bride.

How the Ladies Looked at Saratoga.

Among the prettiest, though not the most expensive, toilets were redingotes of clear muslin, trimmed with three narrow flounces, bound with colored silk, pale violet, mauve, blue, or light green, and worn over a skirt of silk of the shade of the binding, trimmed with narrow flounces of the same. Sash of the silk, with ends trimmed with knotted fringe, necktie of the same, cut on the bias, and fringed out.

A very neat costume consisted of a black and white silk in a very tiny check, made with three crossway flounces, headed by a broad band of velvet, with black lace on either side; a long train, looped up, was trimmed to match, and a loose jacket of the same; a white crape bonnet, trimmed with black lace and a tea rose, was worn with it.

Another, a very distingue dress of brown poult de soie, trimmed with frayed double flounces, of a very soft, light silk, the tunic very long and full, much gored in front, and draped gracefully at the sides with the same trimming. The bonnet of brown tulle trimmed with rosebuds, sprays falling at the back, and veil of brown tulle.

A light green and white stripped grenadine was prettily made, with straight cut plaited flounces bound with ribbon and headed by ruching.

Another costume was white muslin, trimmed with muslin and lace insertion over green a green silk redingote trimmed with white lace. Another, a mauve silk petticoat and a white muslin polonaise trimmed with most lovely Valenciennes lace.

A very effective costume was of a very light shade of gray silk, almost white, the skirt made rather long, with a deep flounce of violet silk, and ruches of the two colors; a long casaque of the light silk trimmed with bands of violet; bonnet to correspond.

Another, quite simple and inexpensive, was a mauve silk petticoat, made kilt fashion; over it a redingote of mauve and white grenadine, trimmed with hair fringe. It was made body and tunic in one, confined at the waist by a sash.

A strikingly handsome costume was of pale straw-color poult de soie, made with plaitings of the same silk, and five narrow flounces of white lace, placed over bands of marron silk; a sash of the same silk; the tunic and body trimmed in a similar manner. The bonnet of maize tulle, ornamented with dark bronze leaves.

A toilet that attracted a great deal of attention consisted of a light shade of thin canary-colored muslin, made with puffings and flounces, a jacket to match, a hat trimmed with a canary-colored ribbon, and a parasol made of puffings of the same shade of muslin over silk.

A blue silk skirt of the new pale shade was trimmed with narrow flounces, pinked out to the waist. Over it a long polonaise of white stripes. Chambery gauze was worn, bordered with rich white fringe.—N. Y. Sun.

The Jeff. Davis Scandal.

We are not disposed to speak in undue haste even in defense of an injured fellow-citizen or friend. While we can be responsible for no man's honor but our own, we find it necessary, in self-defense, to say that we both deny and disbelieve the accusation made by the correspondent of the Louisville Commercial. We believe it originated in malice alone, and that it is as false as it is infamous.

This same individual, we are informed, visited Mr. Davis for the purpose of interviewing him, and was expelled by Mr. Davis from his office only a day or two before. He was a correspondent of the New York Herald, writing for so much a line in the Louisville Commercial; and immediately after his expulsion, we have been told, in the presence of two or more gentlemen in this city, he said that he would get even with Mr. Davis. He has essayed to do it by this slander. He was expelled for using publicly the contents of a letter marked private and confidental, written by Mr. Davis. He was too degraded to know, or too vile to refrain from an infamy impossible to honorable men. It is not strange that such a creature should be a little sore and become malignant from the touch of Mr. D.'s boot, nor is it strange that one capable of violating confidence among gentlemen should also be capable of any slander necessary to gratify his revenge against a man he had injured. To such a reptile the motive was irresistible, and no possible testimony from him is worthy of a thought, or could receive attention from any not the enemies of Mr. Davis.—Memphis Appeal, July 21.

Steam on Canals.

Captain J. L. Cathcart, of Washington, who has lately completed a steam canal-boat to compete for the $10,000 prize offered by the Legislature, proceeded to Buffalo with his boat on Saturday. The boat is called the "Cathcart," and is shaped like the ordinary canal-boat. Her length is 98 feet, her draught 6 feet, and is claimed by her friends that with 50 horse-power she can carry 175 tons of freight at the rate of five miles an hour. The engine occupies but a small space, and most of the boat can be used for cargo. The engine was built according to Capt. Cathcart's model, and differs from all others manufactured for the same purpose up to this time. By a peculiar arrangement, the propeller works on a "universal joint," and turns with the rudder. It is stated that the boat could be steered entirely by the screw, but the rudder gives additional power, which enables it to be turned completely around in its own length. This arrangement is expected to do away entirely with the wash usually created by the rudder and allows the boat to pass through the canal without injuring its banks. Prior to starting for Buffalo, Capt. Cathcart, accompanied by a number of gentlemen interested in canal traffic, made an excursion on the boat a short distance down the bay. The boat was propelled at the rate of five miles, and it was found she passed through the water without creating a ripple. All were satisfied with her performance, and Capt. Cathcart started for the canal with 175 tons of railroad iron on board, sanguine, of course, of winning the prize.—New York Bulletin.

"FROM EEND TO EEND."—We find the following in the Turf, Field and Farm of July 7th:

Standing under the high arches of the West End Hotel at Long Branch on Tuesday night, the tall, gaunt form of Uncle John Harper looked more striking than ever in the flickering, uncertain gaslight. A knot of anxious faced men gathered around the gray-haired Kentuckian, eager to learn something of his horse that was to do battle for the Monmouth Cup on the morrow. "Well, gentlemen," said Uncle John, in his quiet way, "I think that Longfellow is a purty good horse, and if anybody beats him to-morrow they will have to run from eend to eend." These few words gave nerve to the timid, and Longfellow remained the favorite over the field in the betting in spite of the determined rush for Preakness and Helmbold. In the race the magnificent brown broke the hearts of the other horses, and yet he did not have to run much from "eend to eend."

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Synopsis of the weather for the past twenty-four hours.—The barometer rose considerably in the Southern States Tuesday night, but is now again falling. It remains low west of Louisiana and northwards to Nebraska. The low pressure which was, Tuesday afternoon, in Minnesota has moved eastward and is now extending towards lake Ontario, where the pressure has fallen decidedly. The small area of low barometer which was, Tuesday, southeast of New Jersey has moved to the northeast into Pennsylvania. High northeasterly winds prevailed Tuesday afternoon on the coast of New Jersey, with rain, and the storm was felt slightly from Rhode Island to Virginia. Clouds and rain continue in New England and northwards. Clearing weather is reported from Michigan to Minnesota, but cloudy and threatening weather continues from Missouri to the Gulf. A storm is now reported in Nebraska.

PROBABILITIES.—Pleasant weather is probable for the upper lakes on Thursday. No material change is indicated for the gulf cost and the Southern States. An area of low barometer will probably move eastward from Lake Huron with fresh south-westerly winds on Lake Erie and Ontario, and cloudy and threatening weather north-west and north-east of Massachusetts.

Gen. Wrights testimony. He is a practicing lawyer, and one of the editors of the Augusta Chronicle & Sentinel. He says the people of Georgia are peaceful and law abiding, and that the laws are as fully enforced now as before the war. Wright's law practice covered ten counties. He stated from personal knowledge that the negroes enjoyed all the privileges of the courts accorded to the whites. The Judges and juries seem rather inclined to favor the negroes. Wright prosecuted a white man for murder; a negro, convicted of manslaughter, was sentenced to the full term; the same court convicted the white man of killing a negro, and sentenced him to hang on the first Friday in September. While these trials were progressing, twelve white persons of Washington county were carried one hundred and thirty miles to answer before a Federal Commission for assault on negroes, and after imprisonment and much expense were acquitted.

Wright had no reason to believe that there was an organized band of Ku-Klux in Georgia for political purposes, but he knew of a band of marauders like Murrell's extending through a portion of the counties of his district. The men convicted in Washington county are suspected of belonging to this gang. A man named Reese, convicted of killing a negro by a military commission, and pardoned by President Johnson, was convicted of killing another man, and sentenced to be hung, was reprieved by Bullock. His ultimate pardon, Reese's friends say, depend upon raising a certain amount of money. The witness explained fully the organization of the Georgia Legislature. If the disabilities imposed by the 14th Amendment were removed and the people allowed to select the best men for office there would be no complaint against the government; the negroes have neither been cheated nor swindled out of their wages; difficulties and discontent often arises from the difficulty of convincing the negroes that a third is more than a tenth of the crop; arbitrations are often called in determining the question for them; a white man named Fergnson had recently been whipped nearly to death by negroes.

A negro convicted of living in adultery with a white woman, was pardoned by Bullock. A white man and negro woman were prosecuted for the same offence, conviction failed, but the people whipped them. There were no politics in these occurrences. The people resorted to such punishments because of the mischiefs to society produced by the Governor's indiscriminate pardons.

Interesting Census Figures—How Big London is—Excess of Women and Girls.

At midnight on Sunday, the 3d day of April, in the year 1871, a census of the population of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland was taken throughout England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland, and in the Isle of Man and the Channel Isles. The result is now announced by the British authorities as follows:

| | Males. | Females. | Total. |
|---|---|---|---|
| England | 10,437,053 | 11,050,635 | 21,487,688 |
| Ireland | 2,634,123 | 2,768,636 | 5,402,759 |
| Scotland | 1,601,633 | 1,756,980 | 3,358,613 |
| Wales | 603 850 | 713,070 | 1,216,420 |
| Channel Isles | 40,223 | 50,349 | 90,559 |
| Isle of Man | 25,691 | 28,176 | 53,867 |
| | 15,439,078 | 16,367,887 | 31,809,910 |
| Army, Navy and Merchant Marine abroad | 207,198 | | 207,198 |
| The United Kingdom | | | 31,817,108 |

The time for taking the census was fixed at midnight as being the hour at which the largest number of people possible would be found under shelter, and to obtain the greatest accuracy of which a proceeding of this kind will admit, the enumerators were instructed to take their account precisely as the population existed at the stroke of twelve, excluding alike any birth five minutes after, or death five minutes prior thereto. By this extreme caution it has been estimated that the account would be brought some twenty-five hundred to three thousand nearer absolute accuracy.

☞ Louis Napoleon has some friends yet in Paris, and especially among the soldiers of the regular French army. A caricature of the ex-Emperor having been exhibited recently in the picture shop of M. Goupil, in that city, representing Napoleon at the battle of Sedan as sitting in his carriage and smoking quietly, with a sardonic smile upon his lips, while the barouche was driven rapidly through the dead and wounded soldiers whose bodies strewed the field, a couple of dozen of infantrymen, who had paused to look in at the window, became highly incensed at beholding it, and, exclaiming that it was unjust, as they had been at Sedan and had the seen the Emperor fighting bravely in the middle of the troops, entered the shop and compeled the proprietor to remove it.

☞ General Parker retires from the Indian Department with a Presidential certificate as to his "integrity and ability." We hope the place will be filled by some one who does not possess the kind of "integrity and ability" displayed in office by General Ely Parker and General Daniel Butterfield.

☞ During the month of June, 1871, the nickle, bronze and copper coin redeemed at the United States Mint at Philadelphia, amounted to $65,736 91. The total amount redeemed up to July 1st, in accordance with the act of March 3, 1871, was $178,132 75. [Union and American.

☞ The St. Louis Republican, in view of Logan's remark that Grant "would run like h—l, with a tin kettle tied to his tail," thinks the Senator is "sound on the Grant question, but is not a success as a Methodist."

☞ "Them soldiers must be an awful dishonest set," said an old lady; "for not a night seems to pass that some sentinel isn't relieved of his watch."

HOW TO MANAGE HIM.

"How shall you manage your husband?"
Let me tell you, my dear, if I can—
He is really a wonderful creature,
That troublesome animal—man.
Yes, really a wonderful creature,
Inconsistent and queer;
But you'll soon know the secret of learning
The modus operandi, my dear.

If he stays out too late in the evening,
Partaking of supper and wine,
Don't [illegible]
When he comes up asking the time,
For he surely will tell you the town clock
[illegible] before long out one—
[illegible]
[illegible] times before it had done."

And then, if he has, in the morning,
Is [illegible] by [illegible] his head,
Don't [illegible] by means allusion
That his lordship went "spy to bed,"
But rather regard the occurrence
A phenomenon, puzzling, queer,
With a strange look of mystification
In your eyes, if he's watching, my dear.

And don't fail to sew on his buttons,
And mend all his clothing with care;
Don't tease him for money for shopping;
Don't frown when he acts like a bear;
Don't tell him too often my deary,
That your head is aching with pain,
Lest he whispers, way down in his bosom,
"Oh, I wish I was single again!"

Don't tell him that Mary, the house-maid,
And Ann, the obstreperous cook,
Refuse to receive your suggestions
With even so much as a look;
Don't tell how very annoying
You so often found it to be
To be told to "get out of the kitchen,
And don't come a-bother'n' of me!"

But always seem cheerful and happy,
And always look pleasant and gay;
Than a frown there is nothing more potent
In driving one's husband away,
And thus you m[illegible] at ever keep striving:
You'll find it an excellent plan;
But whatever you do, dear, remember
That your husband is only a man.

Fashion Notes.

Sailors' hats are voted absurd for maidens of forty.

Our Grandmothers' lace collars are again in fashion.

Black grenadine is a fashionable material for afternoon toilets.

White breakfast robes are profusely embroidered with black braid.

White muslin or tulle is the fashionable material for evening dresses.

White flannel breakfast jackets are pretty and stylish for young ladies.

Pearl jewelry is very much in fashion this season, especially pearl necklaces.

La Seville, a bit of head gear more a hat than a bonnet, is among the styles.

Tortoise-shell birds cages are among some of the recent London importations.

White leather harness has been introduced by a sporting man at Long Branch.

Dame Fashion's latest edict cautions ladies not to wear colored linen collars or cuffs.

Drab is the aristocratic color for coachmen's livery among the Newport cottagers.

Parisian bonnets of white lace, with orange blossom ornaments, are in vogue for brides.

Light-colored silks are much in favor for afternoon or evening dresses, especially blue and lilac.

A portable croquet pavilion of silk costs thirty-five dollars, and is warranted to retain its color.

Aristocratic matrons at Newport are wearing coronets of diamonds and other precious stones.

The "Abyssinian stretch" has superseded the Grecian bend among our fashionable belles.

Wide hemstitched handkerchiefs are once more in fashion, and are ornamented in the center with initial or monogram.

A pretty bathing suit for a young lady is of white French flannel, bound with blue, black or red braid and made with tight sleeves.

Fashionable colors for summer gloves—Putty color, strawberries and cream, smoke color, tea rose, primrose, pale tan, and cuir color.

Traveling suits are made of plain materials and subdued colors, a fact which will be hailed with delight by admirers of sense and modesty.

A belle at Newport has a wardrobe which fills seven huge trunks. No less than eight lace sacques are included in the extraordinary list.

Large white collars, like those worn by our grandmothers, appear to have rapidly revived in fashion, both in this country and in Europe.

Queen Mary shoes have a wide silver buckle, high, flat heel, and wide, black silk bow at the instep. Those who wear them generally fall down stairs.

Fans show no material change in fashion, shape or style. Those of white or black lace, with gilt or coral frames, are the prettiest and most in use.

A wide brimmed straw hat, with equally wide black band, appears to be the correct and generally recognized head gear for our Beau Brummels.

Brigandage in Georgia.

Governor Bullock has recently issued a proclamation offering large rewards for the arrest and delivery (not the conviction) of alleged Ku-Klux conspirators, and three days after this proclamation was published he commenced drawing warrants on the State Treasury to the amount of $1,500 each. With such inducements, the Ku-Klux crop in that State ought to be very heavy.

Bullock's term of office expires next January, but if in the next twenty-five years Georgia escapes from the load of debt which Bullock and the Radical party have fastened upon her, she will do remarkably well. Talk of Sherman's "bummers" going "through Georgia" they were saints in comparison with this after-birth. The "bummers" were manly, straitforward, knock-you-down thieves. Their successors plunder with the snifile of Aminidab Sleek, and a capacity as boundless as the ocean.—Ohio Statesman.

A FOUR-FOLD TRAGEDY.—Information was received in this city yesterday that a horrible tragedy, involving the death of four out of one family, had occurred at three o'clock that morning, in Effingham county, about two miles from Station No. 3½ on the Central railroad. The news was contained in a few words—that Mrs. Ash, formerly Miss Laura Dasher, of Effingham county, the wife of John H. Ash, well known in this city, had administered strychnine to herself and her three children in a fit of mental aberration, and that the husband, powerless to save, looked on and saw his loved ones die in horrible agony.—Savannah Advertiser.

☞ A professor in a certain college had taken his class out, on a pleasant afternoon, to exercise them in practical surveying. The first boy was called up. Said the professor: "How would you go to work to survey a lot of land?" (Deep thinking, but no answer.) "If a man should come to you to survey a lot of land, what would you do?" "I think," said the student, thoughtfully, "I should tell him he had better get somebody else."

AMERICAN SUPERIORITY.—The London Times actually concedes the superiority of American over English manufactures! It says openly that American manufacturers of "edge tools, farm implements, and various small wares," which used to be bought of England by this country, now are not only almost exclusively in our own market, but are superseding the English manufactured articles in foreign countries. In England's own colonies, American hardware is outstripping—it might be said has already outstripped—the productions of the trade-proud old mother country.

☞ A small, "fat boy," weighing two or three hundred pounds, waddled into Sparta last week under a big white beaver. Sagacious horses shied away with fright, children stared, and loafers talked. As he did not report himself, we advertise him "thusly," lest the feeble infant should wander too far from home.

As all curiosities come from Atlanta, we guess this one hails from the same place. How is it, Brother Whidby? Wern't this man "Constitutional?"—Times and Planter.

THE RECENT STORM.—A gentleman from the northern portion of Monroe advises us that the storm of the 17th, caused great damage to the fruit and corn crops in that section. The well fruited trees were generally twisted and broken down on all the plantations that had fallen under his observation, and the corn was seriously injured.

☞ The Tenth Alabama Regiment will reunion at Shelby Springs next Wednesday. There will be a commingling of jolly spirits.
[Home Courier.

READ! READ!! READ!!! Health, beauty and happiness restored to modern womanhood, by using Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator or Woman's Best Friend.

☞ Sold by every Druggist in Charlotte, N. C., and by Druggists generally.—☜

We were kindly furnished the following extract from a letter to Dr. T. Scott, Druggist, of this city:

STANLEY COUNTY, N. C.

Dr. T. Scott—DEAR SIR: When in your town I asked you for something for my wife. You sold me a bottle of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, or Woman's Best Friend. Please put me up one dozen bottles of the same, as the one I got from you has got my wife finely well. You would not know her now; she has got stout and healthy and as red as a rose. As others are needing it please send me one dozen bottles. ***

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 23, 1871.

Dr. J. H. Bradfield—DEAR SIR: We cheerfully bear testimony to the efficacy and popularity of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator. Among a number of cases it has benefitted in this community, we mention that of a married lady. She was a sufferer from womb disease; had excessive and disagreeable flow of whites; was weak and languid. She was induced to try the Regulator, and after taking the second bottle she is sound and well. Her health and elasticity of spirits have returned, and she has gained many pounds in weight; feels altogether like a new being. Yours very respectfully,

SIMMONS'

LIVER

REGULATOR!

LIVER DISEASE and Indigestion prevail to a greater extent than probably any other malady, and relief is always anxiously sought after. If the Liver is Regulated in its action, health is almost invariably secured. Indigestion, or want of action in the Liver, causes Headache, Constipation, Jaundice, Pain in the Shoulders, Cough, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, bad taste in the mouth, bilious attacks, palpitation of the heart, depression of spirits, or the blues, and a hundred other symptoms. SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR is the best remedy that has ever been discovered for these ailments. It acts mildly, effectually, and being a simple vegetable compound, can do no injury in any quantities that it may be taken. It is harmless in every way; it has been used for forty years, and hundreds of the good and great from all parts of the country will vouch for its virtues, viz:

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia.
Bishop Pierce, of Georgia.
Jno. Gill Shorter, ex Governor of Alabama.
Gen. John B. Gordon.
R. L. Mott, of Columbus, Ga.

are among the hundreds of whom we can refer to.

Price, $1.00. By mail, postage prepaid, $1.25.

Manufactured only by

TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT.

A REBELLIOUS STOMACH.—The Stomach, like the body politic, resents ill-treatment by rebellion. And when it rebels, the liver, the bowels, the nerves, the circulation, the brain, revolt likewise, and the whole system is disastrously agitated. Pacify and regulate the deranged digestive organ first, and the disturbance in its dependencies will speedily cease. The tonic, alterative, corrective and purifying properties of render it an irresistible remedy in cases of indigestion and its concomitant ailments. It is a fine stomachic, and its cathartic operation is so mild and genial, that it never produces the slightest symptoms of debility.

READ!

IT is well known to Doctors and to Ladies, that Women are subject to numerous diseases peculiar to their sex—such as Suppression of the Menses, Whites, Painful Monthly "Periods," Ulceration of the Back and Womb, Irregular Menstruation, Hemorrhage, or Excessive "Flows," and Prolapsus Uteri or Falling of the Womb.

These diseases have seldom been treated successfully. The profession has sought diligently for some remedy that would enable them to treat these diseases with success.

At last that remedy has been discovered by one of the most skillful physicians in the State of Georgia. That remedy is

BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR.

It is purely vegetable, and is put up in Atlanta, Ga., by Bradfield & Co.

It will purify the blood and strengthen the system, relieve irritation of the kidneys, and is a perfect specific for all the above diseases, as a certain cure as quinine is in Chills and Fevers.

For a history of diseases and certificates of its wonderful cures, the reader is referred to the wrapper around each bottle.

Every bottle warranted to give satisfaction or money refunded.

LAGRANGE, Ga., March 22, 1870.

BRADFIELD & Co., Atlanta, Georgia:

DEAR SIRS: I take pleasure in stating that I have used, for the last twenty years, the medicine you are putting up, known as DR. J. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR, and consider it the best combination ever gotten together for the diseases for which it is recommended. I have been familiar with the prescription, both as a practioner of medicine and in domestic practice and can honestly say that I consider it a boon to suffering females, and can but hope every lady in the land, who may be suffering in any way peculiar to their sex, may be able to procure a bottle, that their sufferings may not only be relieved, but that they may be restored to health and strength.

With my kindest regards, I am, respectfully,
W. B. FERRELL, M. D.

We, the undersigned, Druggists, take pleasure in commending to the trade DR. J. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR—believing it to be a good and reliable remedy for the diseases for which he recommends it.

Dr. Prophitt's Celebrated Liver Medicine.

It is purely vegetable, and will act upon the Liver and Kidneys as promptly as Calomel and Buchu, without any danger of salivation or destruction of the bones.

Parties taking this medicine need not fear getting wet, or any other reasonable exposure.

Symptoms of Liver Disease:

Headache, Dull Feeling or the Blues, Sour Stomach, Sick or Nervous Headache, Heartburn, Indigestion or Dyspepsia, Bad or Bitter Taste in the Mouth, the skin has a thick, rough feeling, and is darker than usual, Costiveness, Melancholy Feelings, Cramps, Cold Feet, Colic, Dysentery or Diarrhœa, Chills and Fever, and Piles. In fact, where the Liver is out of order, you are liable to every disease that is not contagious.

Prophitt's Liver Medicine, if taken properly, will prevent and cure any disease resulting from a deranged Liver.

It will regulate its functions and thus cure all diseases caused by the failure of its healthy action.

It has been used for a great number of years, and has given universal satisfaction.

There is no brother or son claiming to have the orginal receipt. It is put up in both Powder and Fluid form.

FAIRBURN, Ga., September 4, 1869.

DR. O. S. PROPHITT:

SIR: My wife has been an invalid for fifteen years. Doctors all agree she had "Liver Disease." In connection with their practice she used various noted remedies, none of which seemed to do any good. Sometime ago I procured a bottle of "Liver Medicine," of your agent here, C. A. Harvey, which being given according to directions, has effected a complete cure.

GEO. L. THOMPSON.

ATLANTA, GA., July 18, 1870.

MESSRS. BRADFIELD & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Last year, during my travels in Alabama and Southwest Georgia, I contracted chills and fever, and my general health became very bad. I tried various remedies, and among others Shallenberger's Pills—all to no purpose. I was troubled with intense pain in the small of my back, and for months I did not have a moment's rest. I had well nigh despaired of recovering when a friend recommended me to take Dr. Prophitt's Liver Medicine. I did so, and one bottle has cured me; and to-day I feel like another man. I consider it one of the best medicines for general use now put up, and, without any reservation, recommend it to the afflicted.

I am, gentlemen, very respectfully yours, etc.
O. M. HARRALSON.

DR. PROPHITT'S Dysentery Cordial

Is one of the most valuable compounds now put up for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera Infatum, or Cholera Morbus.

This medicine has been in use for years, and gives univeral satisfaction.

The most delicate child may take it with impunity.

COVINGTON, GA., November 9, 1867.

DR. PROPHITT:

Having a severe attack of Dysentery during the past summer, I was induced to use your Disentery Cordial, and derived therefrom immediate and permanent relief. It gives me pleasure to recommend this remedy to all who may be so attacked, believing that, should the directions be followed, relief would surely be obtained.

Yours, etc.,
O. S. PORTER.

CUSSETA, TEXAS, 1869.

DR. PROPHITT:

DEAR SIR—Your Liver Medicine and Pain Kill It a complete success. J. L. WHITTLE.

PROPHITT'S Pain Kill It!

This is the celebrated medicine that run Perry Davis' Pain Killer out of the market, wherever it was sold. Davis made Prophitt change the name from Pain Killer to Pain Kill It.

For Rheumatism, Neuralgia, or pain of any kind, it has no equal.

For Cuts, Bruises, Burns, or old Sores, it is the best thing you can use for a dressing.

For Snake Bites or Stings of Poisonous Insects, it is a perfect antidote.

It is good for Colic, Colds, Coughs or Bowell Complaint. Its name indicates its nature fully. It is truly DEATH to pain.

Manufactured and sold by BRADFIELD & CO., Atlanta, Georgia, and by all Druggists.

NEWTON FACTORY, GA., November, 1867.

DR. PROPHITT:

Last summer my horse sprained his ankle severely, causing the whole leg to swell to about twice the natural size, and rendering him almost helpless; two applications of your Anodyne Pain Kill It thoroughly cured it. JOHN B. DAVIS.

DR. PROPHITT'S Fever and Ague Pills,

The best Antidote for Chills and Fever known. Cures warranted in every case or money refunded. Purely vegetable.

DR. PROPHITT'S Anti-Bilious Pills

Will relieve Headache, Nervousness, Jaundice, and all other derangements of the Liver. Purely vegetable.

Manufactured and for sale by BRADFIELD & CO., Broad Street, Atlanta, Georgia, and for sale by all Druggists of Atlanta, Georgia, at manufacturer's prices.

"Southern Books for Southern Schools."

School-Books which are Unsectional, Unpartisan, and Unpolitical.

PREPARED BY THE MOST EMINENT SOUTHERN SCHOLARS, AND

ENTIRELY ACCEPTABLE TO SOUTHERN TEACHERS AND PARENTS

Officially adopted by the Virginia State Board of Education.

AND NOW LARGELY IN USE IN

EVERY SOUTHERN STATE.

The University Publishing Co.,

An Association composed of many of the most eminent citizens of the several Southern States, feeling the necessity for a series of School-Books which should be entirely unsectional, unpartisan, and unpolitical, which should present only the facts of history and science—are now issuing a complete series of School and College Text-books by the eminent scholars and educators named below, which are the

Cheapest, Best, and Most Beautiful School-Books

Now published. The "University Series" embraces

MAURY'S GEOGRAPHICAL SERIES,

By Commodore M. F. MAURY, of the Virginia Military Institute. A series of books which mark an era in the study of this science, and which, in the words of a well known and accomplished Southern teacher, "are characterized by a felicity of arrangement and simple freshness of style which must ever render them attractive to the young, and which will be used by all who wish to teach Geography as a science, as something to make pupils think, and not merely as an enumeration of dry facts."

Holmes' Readers and Spellers,

By GEORGE F. HOLMES, LL.D., Professor of History and General Literature in the University of Virginia. A series of Readers unequalled in cheapness, excellence, and typographical beauty. They are steadily progressive in character, bright and fresh in their selections of prose and verse, and illustrative of Southern scenes, incidents, and history.

Venable's Arithmetical Series,

By CHARLES S. VENABLE, LL.D., Professor of Mathematics in the University of Virginia. These books are received everywhere by intelligent teachers with the highest satisfaction, as being most admirably adapted for mental drill, as well as for business education. Their methods, rules, and reasonings are clear, distinct, logical, and comprehensive, and the series is carefully graded throughout.

Holmes' History of the United States,

By GEORGE F. HOLMES, LL.D., of the University of Virginia. It is enough to say of this admirable work, interesting, impartial, and truthful, as well as pure and graceful in style, that it is the only History of the United States which is strictly unpartisan. It comes down to the present date. Also,

De Vere's French Grammar, Readers, etc.,
Gildersleeve's Latin Series,
Carter's Elements of General History,
Holmes' English Grammars,
LeConte's Scientific Series,
Johnston's English Classics,
Duntonian Writing-Books, etc., etc.

WILLIAM D. CABELL, Principal,
Norwood P. O., Va.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, May 2, 1870.

We take pleasure in recommending "Norwood School" to the confidence of the public. The Principal, Mr. William D. Cabell, is a gentleman of energy, of great moral worth, and of ripe scholarship. Under his judicious management the School, as one of Thorough Training for Boys, has achieved an unwonted but well merited success. Mr. Cabell is assisted by a Corps of Instructors, most of whom are Alumni of this University. They are gentlemen of high character, of thorough scholarship and earnestly devoted to the work of teaching.

Having had the opportunity of testing the character of instruction given at Norwood School, we do not hesitate to recommend it as a High School of the first rank.

ATLANTA

THURSDAY, JULY 27, 1871.

City Intelligence.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—On and after Sunday next, the day passenger train on the Macon and Western Railroad will run every Sunday, leaving Atlanta at 7:50 A. M.

A deer was taken up yesterday at the dairy farm of J. P. Samuels, on McDaniel street, in the western part of the city.

Col. G. W. Adair will sell, at 6 o'clock this evening, on Loyd street, between Peters and Fair streets, a five-room cottage.

The American Hotel, on the corner of Alabama and Pryor streets, in front of the Passenger Depot, is offered for rent. Possession given at once.

A gentleman and lady want board in some private family, or boarding house. See advertisement.

The Victor Fruit Jars can be had of McBride & Co. You can save your fruit, and do it.

Elizabeth H. Clinton, sues W. E. Clinton for a divorce in Henry Superior Court. See rule to perfect service.

George P. Elliott, administrator of the estate of Catherine Elliott, applies to Judge G. M. Nolan, Ordinary of Henry county, for leave to sell the real estate of the deceased.

M. V. Sowell and E. S. Sowell administrators of Jno. Sowell deceased, applies to Judge G. M. Nolan, Ordinary of Henry county, for letters of dismission.

DULUTH.—Quite a cargo of apples was received from Duluth yesterday.

GETTING SCARCE.—Chickens and eggs are reported to be scarce in the neighborhood of Conyers.

PICNIC TO-DAY.—A picnic party leave this morning for Iceville on the Chattahoochee river. They can certainly keep cool.

STRUCK 'ILE.'—Hagan received a carload of Kerosene Oil yesterday, and will give light to the people at reduced prices.

FIXING UP.—Mayson, at the Live Auction House, under DeGives' Opera House, is fixing up for another large auction sale.

IT LOOKED SO.—On Sunday evening a little boy at Decatur, on seeing the hail coming down, remarked that the ice factory had bursted.

SAMUEL OGLETREE.—We regret to learn that Mr. Samuel Ogletree was in a delirious condition yesterday. Mr Ogletree is reported to be improving.

PEACHES.—We saw yesterday a lot of soft peaches selling from the wagon at fifty cents per bushel. All who can ought to put up fruit now.

RETURNED.—The senior member of the firm of M. C. & J. F. Kiser returned yesterday from a visit to Upson county. He reports fine crops in that section.

VICTOR FRUIT JARS.—McBride & Co., are selling the Victor Fruit Jar for preserving fruits. These jars have been satisfactorily tested and are superior jars.

ON ICE.—Our clever friend, Jno. H. Groves, on Whitehall street, not only sells ice at two cents per pound, but keeps fine, delicious melons and fresh butter constantly on ice.

YELLOW FEVER.—Rumors reached this city last night that yellow fever had appeared in Augusta and Savannah. We doubt it, however, as it is rather early in the season, and await further information.

COMING IN.—Hon. L. B. Hutchins, of Hall county, was in the city yesterday with the handsomest lot of cotton we have seen in our market for some time. It was shipped from Flowery Branch on the Air-Line Railroad, and consigned to Judge Strong.

EARLY RISING.—It is reported of a merchant doing business on Whitehall street that a few days ago he did not open his store all day. At ten o'clock at night he opened imagining that he had risen early and would be ahead of his neighbors in opening early.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.—We are informed that jurors in this Court are entitled to $3 per diem for their term of service, counting the days of going and coming, and five cents per mile mileage for every mile traveled going from and coming to Court.

"IN CAME JENNY."—A long-eared, long haired, red-and-black Jenny created some amusement on Whitehall street, in front of Redwine & Fox's yesterday, by prancing around, running on the side-walk, etc. It was equal to a Circus performance.

COLONEL M. M. TIDWELL.—We were pleased yesterday to meet with Colonel M. M. Tidwell who was in fine health and spirits. The Colonel is enthusiastic in behalf of the Atlanta and Columbus Air-Line Railroad. There is some talk of getting up a public meeting to hear him on the subject.

BAPTIST ORPHANS' HOME.—We learn that Rev. R. W. Fuller has been appointed agent for the Baptist Orphans' Home, and will enter upon the discharge of his duties next month. Mr. Fuller is an eloquent and energetic agent, and we think our Baptist friends have made a wise selection. May their returns be fuller every time he goes out.

SHE CAME.—The True Georgian says that a young gent of this city, on Tuesday, was not happy, because a certain young lady, whom he expected to arrive on the West Point Road, did not come. But the young lady did come, and the young gent was happy, though he did pay out some hack hire unnecessarily.

TRINITY METHODIST CHURCH.—The stone foundations of the new church building of the above church was put up by W. W. McAfee. The brick work has been awarded to Healy & Berry. A large well has been sunk, and water was reached yesterday. The brick work will soon be commenced. The granite work has been let to Messrs. Young & Walsh. The work goes bravely on.

DISTRICT MEETING.—A number of our citizens went down to Conyers last night to attend the district meeting of the Methodist Church at that place. Among those going down, we noticed, Rev C. A. Evans, V. R. Tommey, J. S. Stewart, (Mr. Beck was a delegate, but did not get off,) and Rev. A. G. Haygood. The meeting commenced last night with a sermon by Dr. Haygood, and continues until Sunday night.

EXTENSION OF MITCHELL STREET.—On yesterday Judge Hopkins heard at Chambers, argument in the case of the Trustees of the Atlanta University vs. the Mayor and Council of Atlanta, application to enjoin the city from extending Mitchell street. Judge Hopkins granted the application for injunction. Collier, Mynatt, and Collier, appeared for the University, and Capt. W. T. Newman, City Attorney, for the city.

FOUND.—Several gentlemen from Milton and Forsyth counties, came here a few days ago to look up Col B. F. Roberts, who was reported in a late issue of THE CONSTITUTION as mysteriously absent. We are gratified to learn that Col Roberts has been found, and is safe at home with his family and friends. The gentlemen express many thanks for courtesies shown, and services rendered, them by Capt. G. Whit Anderson and the Police of the city.

NOT SO.—Some of the Provincial press are consoling themselves with the idea that "Atlanta is about to be sold out for taxes," because, forsooth, "nearly one entire wall, (some ten or twelve feet square,) at the City Hall is covered with the names of State and County tax defaulters." If the editors of these provincial sheets, will enquire of their Tax Receivers and Collectors, they will find out that there is a large list of State and County tax defaulters every year. If these editors would acquaint themselves with the law, they would not distort facts. Atlanta is not about to be sold out for taxes no more than any other city or town.

A SURPRISE PARTY.—On Tuesday night some thirty-five or forty young ladies and gentlemen surprised Col. J. Baxter Campbell and lady with a call en masse upon them. The plan of attack was well laid and finely executed. It was a surprise to Colonel Campbell and lady, but they did not permit their self-possession and equipoise of mind to desert them. In a few moments they relieved every one comfortable, and made all feel at ease. The hours were spent pleasantly. Mrs. L. H. Clark "struck the electric chain wherewith we are bound" with music which was given

"To brighten the gay and kindle the loving."

Her fingers touch the chords of the piano as delicately as the foot-fall of a fairy, evoking from them the sweetest music.

Pen can not depict the happiness portrayed in each countenance filing by in the grand promenades of loving couples. The faces of the fair ones, "with tints of mingled lustre bright, where the rose mantles over the living snow," paled not before the glory of "the rich redundance of golden hair, brighter than sun beams of meridian day."

If the throbbing pulses beat in unison to the inspiring music of Mrs. Clarke, the crimson current was accelerated in its flow, when young men and maidens sought for increased pleasure in couples. Among the ladies present we noticed a handsome brunette, Miss Katie Johnson, of Palmetto, whose vivacity and beauty lent a charm to the occasion.

At a late hour the party broke up—all well pleased with their experiences of the evening, and charmed with the suavity and polished manners of their popular host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell.

SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA—July 26, 1871.—Argument of No. 4, Southwestern Circuit, was concluded.

No. 6 was argued. It is Gilbert M. Stokes vs. Howell T. Hollis. Trover, from Lee.

West & Kimbrough, W. A. Hawkins, Clark & Spencer, for plaintiff in error.

Fort & Hollis, for defendant.

No. 6 was argued. It is Randal Duckworth vs. Joseph Duckworth. Certiorari, from Sumter.

Hawkins & Guerry, for plaintiff in error.

J. A. Ansley, W. A. Hawkins, for defendant.

No. 7 was argued. It is Martha Turner vs. Penelope Sanfield. New trial, from Sumter.

Hawkins & Guerry, for plaintiff in error.

W. B. Guerry, for defendant.

No. 8 was passed over because of temporary sickness of George W. Warwick, Esq.

No. 9 is Thomas G. Bryan vs. the State. Misdemeanor, from Lee.

Lyon, DeGraffenreid & Irvin, W. A. Hawkins, for plaintiff in error.

B. P. Hollis, Solicitor General, for the State.

Pending opening argument court adjourned till 10 o'clock A. M. to-morrow.

FIREMEN AND JURY DUTY.—The firemen throughout the State are a little exercised at a recent decision of the Supreme Court, that they are not exempt from jury duty. The Supreme Court decided that under the Constitution all exemptions were repealed, and that all "upright and intelligent persons," whether firemen, ministers or doctors, are subject to jury service.

At a recent meeting of the Augusta Fire Department, the following was adopted:

Resolved, That the Chief of the Fire Department be requested to correspond with the Chiefs of the Augusta, Macon, Atlanta, Columbus and other principal cities in Georgia, to take into consideration the decision of Judge Lochrane relative to the non-exemption from jury duty of men who are actual firemen and if in their opinion it be necessary to call a convention of firemen, whenever it may be decided upon, to take action in the matter.

The Chronicle and Sentinel says that at a called meeting of "Young America Fire Company, No. 3," of Macon, held Monday night, a resolution was unanimously adopted, that as the Company was formed for the purpose of suppressing fires, and not for shirking jury duty, it is their intention to continue in the discharge of their duty, regardless of Supreme Court decisions or legislative exemptions.

WORTHY OF PATRONAGE.—At the post-office every day may be seen a gentleman seated on a rolling chair, unable to walk, his little box of tools before him on a table and he busily at work. This gentleman is Alfred Robertson, of Memphis, Tenn., for many years previous to the war the clerk of the Circuit Court at Tuscaloosa, Alabama. He has been an invalid for many years with rheumatism. His eyes still beam with intelligence, and his energy remains as strong as ever. He is engaged in the stencil business, making names, plates for marking clothing with indelible ink, neatly stamping key checks with beautiful emblems of Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, railroad men, firemen, barbers, carpenters, &c. Go and patronize him.

THE most complete picture frame manufactory in the city is owned by Phillips & Crew. These gentlemen receive orders in their book store, buy the best picture glass from first hands, and are prepared to make oval and square frames, at short notice. Special attention given to orders from a distance. Address Phillips & Crew.

MIDSUMMER MALADIES.—The hot solar rays that ripen the harvests generate many distressing diseases. If the liver be at all predisposed to irregularities, this is the season in which bilious attacks may be anticipated. A weak stomach, too, is weakest in the summer months, and the loss of vitality through the pores by excessive perspiration is so great, that a wholesome tonic, combining also the properties of a diffusive stimulant and gentle exhilarant, is in many cases necessary to health, and under no circumstances should be dispensed with by the sickly and debilitated. Of all the preparations intended thus to refresh, sustain, and fortify the human frame, there is none that will compare with Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters. They have been weighed in the balance of experience and not found wanting; have been recommended from the first as a great medicinal specific, not as a beverage, and in spite of interested opposition from innumerable quarters, stand, after a twenty years' trial, at the head of all proprietary medicines intended for the prevention and cure of all ordinary complaints of the stomach, the liver, the bowels, and the nerves. In the unhealthy districts bordering the great rivers of the South and West, Hostetter's Bitters may be classed as the standard one for every species of intermittent or remittent fever. The people who inhabit those districts, place the most implicit confidence in the preparation—a confidence that is increased every year by the results of its operation.

As bitters, so called, of the most pernicious character, are springing up like fungi on every side, the public is hereby forewarned against the dram-shop frauds. Ask for Hostetter's Bitters, see that the label, etc., are correct, and remember that the genuine article is never sold in bulk, but in bottles only.

ATLANTA, GA., July 1st, 1871.

At the annual meeting of the Stockholders and Directors of the Atlanta Department of the Southern Life Insurance Company, the undersigned were appointed, in accordance with the earnest desire of the President and Secretary, a committee to examine the books, assets, liabilities, &c., of the Department.

We have patiently and thoroughly examined everything pertaining to the Company's business, and are gratified in being able to state to the absent Directors, Stockholders and Policy holders, that the business of the Company has been conducted by the officers with economy and fidelity; and that our former confidence in the great success of the Company and its ability to furnish to Policy holders as perfect security as any in the country, has been strengthened.

HOW TO MANAGE HIM.

"How shall you manage your husband?"
Let me tell you, my dear, if I can,
He is really a wonderful creature,
That troublesome animal—man.
Yes, really a wonderful creature,
Inconsistent and queer;
But you'll soon know the secret of learning
The modus operandi, my dear.

If he stays out too late in the evening,
Partaking of supper and wine,
Don't [illegible] a false fabricator,
[illegible] by asking the time.
[illegible] clock
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]

And then, if his hat, in the morning,
Is smaller by far than his head,
Don't [illegible] by merest allusion
That his lordship went tipsy to bed,
But rather regard the occurrence
A phenomenon, puzzling, queer,
With a strange look of mystification
In your eyes, if he's watching, my dear.

And don't fail to sew on his buttons,
And mend all his clothing with care;
Don't tease him for money for shopping;
Don't frown when he acts like a bear;
Don't tell him too often my deary,
That your head is aching with pain,
Lest he whispers, way down in his bosom,
"Oh, I wish I was single again!"

Don't tell him that Mary, the house-maid,
And Ann, the obstreperous cook,
Refuse to receive your suggestions
With even so much as a look;
Don't tell how very annoying
You so often found it to be
To be told to "get out of the kitchen,
And don't come a-bother'n' of me!"

But always seem cheerful and happy,
And always look pleasant and gay;
That a frown there is nothing more potent
In driving one's husband away.
And thus you must ever keep striving;
You'll find it an excellent plan;
But whatever you do, dear, remember
That your husband is only a man.

Fashion Notes.

Sailors' hats are voted absurd for maidens of forty.

Our Grandmothers' lace collars are again in fashion.

Black grenadine is a fashionable material for afternoon toilets.

White breakfast robes are profusely embroidered with black braid.

White muslin or tulle is the fashionable material for evening dresses.

White flannel breakfast jackets are pretty and stylish for young ladies.

Pearl jewelry is very much in fashion this season, especially pearl necklaces.

La Seville, a bit of head gear more a hat than a bonnet, is among the styles.

Tortoise-shell birds cages are among some of the recent London importations.

White leather harness has been introduced by a sporting man at Long Branch.

Dame Fashion's latest edict cautions ladies not to wear colored linen collars or cuffs.

Drab is the aristocratic color for coachmen's livery among the Newport cottagers.

Parisian bonnets of white lace, with orange blossom ornaments, are in vogue for brides.

Light-colored silks are much in favor for afternoon or evening dresses, especially blue and lilac.

A portable croquet pavilion of silk costs thirty-five dollars, and is warranted to retain its color.

Aristocratic matrons at Newport are wearing coronets of diamonds and other precious stones.

The "Abyssinian stretch" has superseded the Grecian bend among our fashionable belles.

Wide hemstitched handkerchiefs are once more in fashion, and are ornamented in the center with initial or monogram.

A pretty bathing suit for a young lady is of white French flannel, bound with blue, black or red braid and made with tight sleeves.

Fashionable colors for summer gloves—Putty color, strawberries and cream, smoke color, tea rose, primrose, pale tan, and cu. color.

Traveling suits are made of plain materials and subdued colors, a fact which will be hailed with delight by admirers of sense and modesty.

A belle at Newport has a wardrobe which fills seven huge trunks. No less than eight lace sacques are included in the extraordinary list.

Large white collars, like those worn by our grandmothers, appear to have rapidly revived in fashion, both in this country and in Europe.

Queen Mary shoes have a wide silver buckle, high, flat heel, and wide, black silk bow at the instep. Those who wear them generally fall down stairs.

Fans show no material change in fashion, shape or style. Those of white or black lace, with gilt or coral frames, are the prettiest and most in use.

A wide brimmed straw hat, with equally wide black band, appears to be the correct and generally recognized head gear for our Beau Brummels.

Brigandage in Georgia.

Governor Bullock has recently issued a proclamation offering large rewards for the arrest and delivery (not the conviction) of alleged Ku-Klux conspirators, and three days after this proclamation was published he commenced drawing warrants on the State Treasury to the amount of $1,500 each. With such inducements, the Ku-Klux crop in that State ought to be very heavy.

Bullock's term of office expires next January, but if in the next twenty-five years Georgia escapes from the load of debt which Bullock and the Radical party have fastened upon her, she will do remarkably well. Talk of Sherman's "bummers" going "through Georgia" they were saints in comparison with this after-birth. The "bummers" were manly, straitforward, knock-you-down thieves. Their successors plunder with the sniffle of Aminidab Sleek, and a capacity as boundless as the ocean.—Ohio Statesman.

A FOUR-FOLD TRAGEDY.—Information was received in this city yesterday that a horrible tragedy, involving the death of four out of one family, had occurred at three o'clock that morning, in Effingham county, about two miles from Station No. 3½ on the Central railroad. The news was contained in a few words—that Mrs. Ash, formerly Miss Laura Dasher, of Effingham county, the wife of John H. Ash, well known in this city, had administered strychnine to herself and her three children in a fit of mental aberration, and that the husband, powerless to save, looked on and saw his loved ones die in horrible agony.—Savannah Advertiser.

☞ A professor in a certain college had taken his class out, on a pleasant afternoon, to exercise them in practical surveying. The first boy was called up. Said the professor: "How would you go to work to survey a lot of land?" (Deep thinking, but no answer.) "If a man should come to you to survey a lot of land, what would you do?" "I think," said the student, thoughtfully, "I should tell him he had better get somebody else."

AMERICAN SUPERIORITY.—The London Times actually concedes the superiority of American over English manufactures! It says openly that American manufacturers of "edge tools, farm implements, and various small wares," which [illegible] England by this country, now are not only almost exclusively in our own market, but are superseding the English manufactured articles in foreign countries. In England's own colonies, American hardware is outstripping—it might be said has already outstripped—the productions of the trade-proud old mother country.

☞ A small, "fat boy," weighing two or three hundred pounds, waddled into Sparta last week astride a big white beaver. Sagacious horses shied away with fright, children stared, and loafers talked. As he did not report himself, we advertise him "thusly," lest the feeble infant should wander too far from home.

As all curiosities come from Atlanta, we guess this one hails from the same place. How is it, Brother Whidby? Wern't this man "Constitutional?"—Times and Planter.

THE RECENT STORM.—A gentleman from the northern portion of Monroe advises us that the storm of the 17th, caused great damage to the fruit and corn crops in that section. The well fruited trees were generally twisted and broken down on all the plantations that had fallen under his observation, and the corn was seriously injured.

☞ The Tenth Alabama Regiment will reunion at Shelby Springs next Wednesday. There will be a commingling of jolly spirits. [Rome Courier.

READ! READ! READ!!! Health, beauty and happiness restored to modern womanhood, by using Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator or Woman's Best Friend.

☞ Sold by every Druggist in Charlotte, N. C., and by Druggists generally.

We were kindly furnished the following extract from a letter to Dr. F. Scarr, Druggist, of this city:

STANLEY COUNTY, N. C.

Dr. F. Scarr—DEAR SIR: When in your town I asked you for something for my wife. You sold me a bottle of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, or Woman's Best Friend. Please put me up one dozen bottles of the same, as the one I got from you has got my wife finely well. You would not know her now; she has got stout and healthy and as red as a rose. As others are needing it please send me one dozen bottles. ***

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 23, 1871.

Dr. J. H. Bradfield—DEAR SIR: We cheerfully bear testimony to the efficacy and popularity of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator. Among a number of cases it has benefitted in this community, we mention that of a married lady. She was a sufferer from womb disease; had excessive and disagreeable flow of whites; was weak and languid. She was induced to try the Regulator, and after taking the second bottle she is sound and well. Her health and elasticity of spirits have returned, and she has gained many pounds in weight; feels altogether like a new being. Yours very respectfully,

READ!

IT is well known to Doctors and to Ladies, that Women are subject to some distressing diseases peculiar to their sex—such as Suppression of the Menses, Whites, Painful Monthly "Periods," Rheumatism of the Back and Womb, Irregular Menstruation, Hemorrhage, or Excessive "Flows," and Prolapsus Uteri or Falling of the Womb.

These diseases have seldom been treated successfully. The profession has sought diligently for some remedy that would enable them to treat these diseases with success.

At last that remedy has been discovered by one of the most skillful physicians in the State of Georgia. That remedy is

BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR.

It is purely vegetable, and is put up in Atlanta, Ga., by Bradfield & Co.

It will purify the blood and strengthen the system, relieve irritation of the kidneys, and is a perfect specific for all the above diseases, as a certain cure as quinine is in Chills and Fevers.

For a history of diseases and certificates of its wonderful cures, the reader is referred to the wrapper around each bottle.

Every bottle warranted to give satisfaction or money refunded.

LAGRANGE, GA., March 22, 1870.

BRADFIELD & CO., Atlanta, Georgia:

DEAR SIRS: I take pleasure in stating that I have used, for the last twenty years, the medicine you are putting up, known as Dr. J. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR, and consider it the best combination ever gotten together for the diseases for which it is recommended. I have been familiar with the prescription, both as practioner of medicine and in domestic practice and can honestly say that I consider it a boon to suffering females, and can but hope every lady in the land, who may be suffering in any way peculiar to their sex, may be able to procure a bottle, that their sufferings may not only be relieved, but that they may be restored to health and strength.

With my kindest regards, I am, respectfully,
W. B. FERRELL, M. D.

We, the undersigned, Druggists, take pleasure in commending to the trade Dr. J. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR—believing it to be a good and reliable remedy for the diseases for which he recommends it.

Dr. Prophitt's

Celebrated Liver Medicine.

It is purely vegetable, and will act upon the Liver and Kidneys as promptly as Calomel and Buchu, without any danger of salivation or destruction of the bones.

Parties taking this medicine need not fear getting wet, or any other reasonable exposure.

Symptoms of Liver Disease:

Headache, Dull Feeling or the Blues, Sour Stomach, Sick or Nervous Headache, Heartburn, Indigestion or Dyspepsia, Bad or Bitter Taste in the Mouth, the skin has a thick, rough feeling, and is darker than usual, Costiveness, Melancholy Feelings, Cramps, Cold Feet, Colic, Dysentery or Diarrhea, Chills and Fever, and Piles. In fact, where the Liver is out of order, you are liable to every disease that is not contagious.

Prophitt's Liver Medicine, if taken properly, will prevent and cure any disease resulting from a deranged Liver.

It will regulate its functions and thus cure all diseases caused by the failure of its healthy action.

It has been used for a great number of years, and has given universal satisfaction.

There is no brother or son claiming to have the orginal receipt. It is put up in both Powder and Fluid form.

FAIRBURN, GA., September 4, 1868.

DR. O. S. PROPHITT:

SIR: My wife has been an invalid for fifteen years. Doctors all agree she had "Liver Disease." In connection with their practice she used various noted remedies, none of which seemed to do any good. Sometime ago I procured a bottle of "Liver Medicine," of your agent here, C. A. Harvey, which being given according to directions, has effected a complete cure. GEO. L. THOMPSON.

ATLANTA, GA., July 18, 1870.

MESSRS. BRADFIELD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN—Last year, during my travels in Alabama and Southwest Georgia, I contracted chills and fever, and my general health became very bad. I tried various remedies, and among others Shallenberger's Pills—all to no purpose. I was troubled with intense pain in the small of my back, and for months I did not have a moment's rest. I had well nigh despaired of recovering when a friend recommended me to take Dr. Prophitt's Liver Medicine. I did so, and one bottle has cured me; and to-day I feel like another man. I consider it one of the best medicines for general use now put up, and, without any reservation, recommend it to the afflicted.

I am, gentlemen, very respectfully yours, etc.
O. M. HARRALSON.

DR. PROPHITT'S

Dysentery Cordial

Is one of the most valuable compounds now put up for Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera Infatum, or Cholera Morbus.

This medicine has been in use for years, and gives univeral satisfaction.

The most delicate child may take it with impunity.

COVINGTON, GA., November 9, 1867.

DR. PROPHITT:

Having a severe attack of Dysentery during the past summer, I was induced to use your Disentery Cordial, and derived therefrom immediate and permanent relief. It gives me pleasure to recommend this remedy to all who may be so attacked, believing that, should the directions be followed, relief would surely be obtained. Yours, etc.,

O. S. PORTER.

PROPHITT'S

Pain Kill It!

This is the celebrated medicine that run Perry Davis' Pain Killer out of the market, wherever it was sold. Davis made Prophitt change the name from Pain Killer to Pain Kill It.

For Rheumatism, Neuralgia, or pain of any kind, it has no equal.

For Cuts, Bruises, Burns, or old Sores, it is the best thing you can use for a dressing.

For Snake Bites or Stings of Poisonous Insects, it is a perfect antidote.

It is good for Colic, Colds, Coughs or Bowell Complaint. Its name indicates its nature fully. It is truly DEATH to pain.

Manufactured and sold by BRADFIELD & CO., Atlanta, Georgia, and by all Druggists.

NEWTON FACTORY, GA., November, 1867.

DR. PROPHITT:

Last summer my horse sprained his ankle severely, causing the whole leg to swell to about twice the natural size, and rendering him almost helpless; two applications of your Anodyne Pain Kill It thoroughly cured it. JOHN B. DAVIS.

DR. PROPHITT'S

Fever and Ague Pills,

The best Antidote for Chills and Fever known. Cures warranted in every case or money refunded. Purely vegetable.

DR. PROPHITT'S

Anti-Bilious Pills

Will relieve Headache, Nervousness, Jaundice, and all other derangements of the Liver. Purely vegetable.

The University Publishing Co.,

An Association composed of many of the most eminent citizens of the several Southern States, feeling the necessity for a series of School-Books which should be entirely unsectional, unpartisan, and unpolitical, which should present only the facts of history and science—are now issuing a complete series of School and College Text-books by the eminent scholars and educators named below, which are the

Cheapest, Best, and Most Beautiful School-Books

Now published. The "University Series" embraces

MAURY'S GEOGRAPHICAL SERIES,

By Commodore M. F. MAURY, of the Virginia Military Institute. A series of books which mark an era in the study of this science, and which, in the words of a well known and accomplished Southern teacher, "are characterized by a felicity of arrangement and simple freshness of style which must ever render them attractive to the young, and which will be used by all who wish to teach Geography as a science, as something to make pupils think, and not merely as an enumeration of dry facts."

Holmes' Readers and Spellers,

By GEORGE F. HOLMES, LL.D., Professor of History and General Literature in the University of Virginia. A series of Readers unequalled in cheapness, excellence, and typographical beauty. They are steadily progressive in character, bright and fresh in their selections of prose and verse, and illustrative of Southern scenes, incidents, and history.

Venable's Arithmetical Series,

By CHARLES S. VENABLE, LL.D., Professor of Mathematics in the University of Virginia. These books are received everywhere by intelligent teachers with the highest satisfaction, as being most admirably adapted for mental drill, as well as for business education. Their methods, rules, and reasonings are clear, distinct, logical, and comprehensive, and the series is carefully graded throughout.

Holmes' History of the United States,

By GEORGE F. HOLMES, LL.D., of the University of Virginia. It is enough to say of this admirable work, interesting, impartial, and truthful, as well as pure and graceful in style, that it is the only History of the United States which is strictly unpartisan. It comes down to the present date. Also,

WILLIAM D. CABELL, Principal,
Norwood P.O., Va.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, May 2, 1870.

We take pleasure in recommending "Norwood School" to the confidence of the public. The Principal, Mr. William D. Cabell, is a gentleman of energy, of great moral worth, and of ripe scholarship. Under his judicious management the School, as one of Thorough Training for Boys, has achieved an unwonted but well merited success. Mr. Cabell is assisted by a Corps of Instructors, most of whom are Alumni of this University. They are gentlemen of high character, of thorough scholarship and earnestly devoted to the work of teaching.

Having had the opportunity of testing the character of instruction given at Norwood School, we do not hesitate to recommend it as a High School of the first-rank.

THE NEW TABLE OF RATES, PREPARED EXPRESSLY FOR THIS COMPANY BY PROF. C. F. McCAY, which guarantees a cash surrender value to every policy, is computed upon a just and equitable basis, giving to the policy holder every dollar he is entitled to. This surrender value will be paid to him in cash, if the assured wishes to discontinue further payments, or he can borrow said value at six per cent. interest per annum to pay his future premiums. This system must commend itself to all seeking insurance.

If the Note or Loan plan is preferred, the Company will grant a loan of one-third of the premium on the same rates, to be indorsed upon the policy (no note being taken), bearing six per cent. interest, payable in advance.

All Policies non-forfeitable for their equitable value.

NO RESTRICTION ON TRAVEL OR RESIDENCE in the United States, British North America, or Europe.

A Dividend of Forty per Cent. was declared on the 1st of June, 1870, payable in cash to those who paid their premiums in cash, and credited on the note of those who paid their premiums by part note.
